The site is just blocks away from where 12-year old Hector Pieterse was shot in 1976. Lunch is included at Sakhumzi's Restaurant.

This afternoon you will visit the Apartheid Museum, the first of its kind, illustrates the rise and fall of apartheid. The museum is a superb example of design, space and landscape offering the international community a unique South African experience. The exhibits have been assembled and organised by a multi-disciplinary team of curators, film-makers, historians and designers. They include provocative film footage, photographs, text panels and artefacts illustrating the events and human stories that are part of the epic saga, known as apartheid. A series of 22 individual exhibition areas takes the visitor through a dramatic emotional journey that tells a story of a state-sanctioned system based on racial discrimination and the struggle of the majority to overthrow this tyranny. For anyone wanting to understand and experience what apartheid South Africa was really like, a visit to the Apartheid Museum is fundamental. The museum is a beacon of hope showing the world how South Africa is coming to terms with its oppressive past and working towards a future that all South Africans can call their own.

With its majestic Table Mountain backdrop, Cape Town is one of the most beautiful and exciting cities in the world; an eclectic mix of architectural styles reflects the tastes and dictates of the past and the more functional demands of the 20th Century. Cobblestone streets, mosques and the flat roofed pastel homes of the Malay quarter enhance a cosmopolitan ambience and in a recent development, the restoration of the Victoria and Alfred Waterfront evokes images of the seafaring activities of the 19th century. At the end of the day, gourmets and lovers of sophisticated entertainment have a treat in store as the choice for your evening's repast is vast.

Accommodation: Sun Square Cape Town Gardens, standard room – 5 nights

SEPTEMBER 26 FULL DAY WALK TO FREEDOM TOUR (B)

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel and begin your full day Walk to Freedom tour.

'No easy road to freedom' was a central theme in most of the Mass Democratic Movement's campaigns, from the early days through to the late 1980s. Any understanding of present day conditions in South Africa is greatly enhanced by looking at past injustice, the legacy of the struggle and the promise of reconstruction and development initiatives under way at present. This Cape Town day tour offers a wealth of insight into South Africa's history. It includes a brief education introduction to Cape Town, one of the world's most varied and popular cities.

As a result of the Group Areas Act, 60 000 Capetonian families were forcibly removed from this once vibrant area between 1966 and 1982. The District Six issue remains crucial. You will examine the now desolate area, Zonnebloem, which was District Six and visit the living museum which attempts to represent and recapture District Six in various ways - as a finespun tapestry of communal life torn apart but not forgotten.

Langa & Khayelitsha Townships

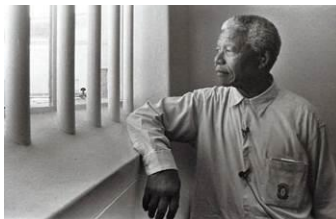

Seeking racial segregation, apartheid policies disrupted all non-white population groups, distorted both rural and urban development and ensured hopeless overcrowding. Few houses were built. Sprawling satellite camps of seemingly endless 'shanties' (makeshift structures of various materials) - provide little more than a roof and some shelter. As you shall see, squatter settlements are seeking their own solutions as an economic necessity. Against all odds, township life prevails, in all its nuances. As guests of local community workers, you will take a walk through a vibrant black community with all its different social strata. Langa is Cape Town's oldest formal black township. Visit the local market, the craft Centre and a traditional healer. In Kaylelitsha, experience life in a township. You will have the opportunity to talk to people and try the traditional African sorghum beer and ginger beer at the 'spaza' (a small township shop) or the 'shebeen' (tavern). Witness the work in progress as hundreds of squatters, with the help of state grants, are setting about building their own brick homes.

After your township tour, transfer to The V&A Waterfront for lunch (own expense). After lunch board your ferry to Robben Island.

Robben Island (weather permitting)

Please note that Robben Island has implemented a new procedure for all passengers booked on the Robben Island tour. Guests are required to show proof of passport/ ID and fill out an indemnity form before boarding the vessel to Robben Island. They may bring copies of Identification should they wish to rather keep the original at the hotel.

Formerly a political prison and leper colony, before that, this historic landmark was recently established as a museum and national monument. On this leg of your Cape Town day tour you will experience the conditions of incarceration - view Nelson Mandela's maximum-security prison cell (Cell 5) and see the lime quarries. Former inmates lead tours around their old cells - a moving experience for both them and thousands of visitors from around the world. This well-preserved landmark is a monument to the triumph of freedom, dignity and determination over humiliation and oppression.

Return to your hotel for overnight.

SEPTEMBER 27 FOODIES ON FOOT TOUR (BL)

Breakfast at the hotel followed by a Foodies on Foot tour. (Monday-Saturday 10:00am-1:0pm)

Sample the flavours of Stellenbosch, a 335 year old university town, known as the City of Oaks or Eikestad in Afrikaans and Dutch due to the large number of oak trees that were planted by its founder, Simon van der Stel, to grace the streets and homesteads... You'll enjoy top quality, locally produced artisan food during a leisurely walk. And along the way you'll get to meet some of the passionate food artisans of this beautiful town.

After your tour you will transfer to Stellenbosch wine estate for a wine tasting.

Return to your hotel for overnight.

SEPTEMBER 28 CAPE MALAY COOKING SAFARI (BL)

Breakfast at the hotel and begin your Cape Malay cooking safari. (9:00am-1:00pm)

Get to know aspects of the cultural diversity that Cape Town has to offer on this interactive guided walk through the historical heart of the Bo-Kaap with a mini shopping safari. The focus lies on the Cape Muslim people with their South-East Asian heritage, their culture, their community and their food and links between these. Stop at a local spice shop and halaal butcher, interacting with locals and discovering typical Malay ingredients. The highlight? Visit a local family's home and participate in a hands-on fun-filled cooking session and demonstration before savouring a full traditional lunch!

Transfer back to the hotel and the afternoon is at leisure.

SEPTEMBER 29 DAY AT LEISURE (B)

Breakfast at the hotel and the day is at leisure to enjoy the city or any optional touring.

Optional Peninsula Tour

Today you will have a full day coach & guide Peninsula tour (on a share basis with other people). Drive by Clifton, Camps Bay & Llandudno. Optional seal Island cruise at Hout Bay (time permitting), and see Chapman's Peak Drive, Cape Point with a Funicular ticket included. Visit Simon's Town and Penguins at Boulders Beach.

Optional Shark Cage Dive

Great White Sharks... imposing in size, their graceful beauty is perfectly adapted to their environment. Their powerful predatory behavior and the mysteries surrounding this spectacular creature beckons you to come closer and closer. Experience the White Shark in its natural environment above or under water. And for the less courageous, the boat has a large viewing platform on top and space on the main deck for seating and viewing.

SEPTEMBER 30 DEPART (B)
