

Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation

The mission of Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR) is to assist Kentuckians with disabilities to achieve suitable employment and independence.

- Consumer Services OVR provides vocational rehabilitation services needed to reach your vocational goal.
- Assessment to determine eligibility and vocational rehabilitation needs
 - Counseling and guidance
 - Vocational and other training services
 - Supported Employment
 - Personal assistance services
 - Interpreter and notetaking services
 - Telecommunications, sensory, and other technological aids and devices
 - Rehabilitation technology
 - Job placement and job retention services
 - Employment follow-up and post-employment services
- Employer Services OVR assists business in hiring, developing and keeping valued employees; we provide an array of services at no cost.
- Prescreening of applicants based on essential job requirements
 - On-site job trainer and support services
 - Job restructuring/work site adjustment
 - Accessibility survey of complete worksite
 - Assistive technology; devices and specialized equipment
 - Follow-up services
- Eligibility An OVR counselor will perform an assessment to determine eligibility for services. Once eligibility is determined, the counselor's role is to provide information, resources, guidance and counseling, and choices related to an individual's strength, resources, priorities, concerns, capacities and abilities so the individual can prepare for and enter a job.
- Where Office are located through the state and an OVR counselor is assigned to every county. For more information, contact the office listed below, or visit our website at KCC.KY.GOV

Kentucky Career Center- Office of Vocational Rehabilitation
333 Waller Avenue Suite 180
Lexington, KY 40504
859-246-2185
LoriA.Hall@ky.gov