

MISSOURI S&T | 150

150th Anniversary Poetry and Writing Contest

Missouri S&T was chartered on Feb. 24, 1870, as the Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy. Classes were first called to order on Nov. 6, 1871. In 2020-21, we commemorate our 150-year legacy of discovery, creativity and innovation. The Time Capsule is set to be sealed from Fall 2021 to 2071.

150.mst.edu/writing-contest

Award winners

Missouri S&T congratulates the following individuals for their achievement.

Poetry – Adult Division

- First place: Mission of a Miner by Abdullah Al Moinee
Second place: The future is bright by Peter Ehrhard
Third place (tie): Mourned by Kenneth Schmidt
Third place (tie): Winter Prayer for Lucretius by Patrick Tibbits

Flash Fiction – Adult Division

- First place: The Campus Visit by Laurie Alberswerth
Second place: The Time-Traveling Miner by Anna Peacock
Third place: Playing in the Dirt by Celtic Pipkin

Poetry – Youth Division

- First place: For One Hundred Fifty Years by Eyram Dumor (Rolla)
Second place: Missouri's Miner by Grant Rodriguez (St. James)
Third place: S&T Poem by Catriona Murphy (St. James)

THE
CEDAR STREET PLAYERS
AT THE CEDAR STREET PLAYHOUSE
ROLLA, MISSOURI

