

My name is Lujain Idrees. I'm 22 years old and i study digital media design at SAE.

I can take really nice photographs because i studied photography and i like to practice photography using my camera

I also know how to work on Photoshop i can make creative designs using it

I also like video making that's why i created a YouTube channel to share some of my hobbies with people I also have passion for presenting and its one my dreams to become a presenter on day.
