"I always like walking in the rain, so no one can see me
crying."

... Charles Chaplin

My husband Chuck reproached me for every penny I spent Diapers are just a waste of money! You can wash the swaddling clothes!

I needed money to buy new shoes.

These boots are just a year old. Have them repaired!

If we're short on money, then why did Chuck make me quit my job?!
