

Just Sing It

T.: Danny Costello
M.: Carsten Gerlitz

1. Some-times the skies are grey, the world is cold, and rain's com-ing down,—
2. The life is great but it can't al-ways be a po-si-tive ride,—

com-ing down, but, I know just the way— to find some joy and spread it a-round, life is great, you've got to make a choice and want to see the hap-pi-er side,— — spread it a-round. I lift my eyes to the sky,— and take a deep breath, 'cause I—— hap-pi-er side.— So, lift your eyes of the ground, don't wor-ry who is a-round,

— know that the best kind of light, that gives me strenght for the fight—
— you'll feel your chains start, to break, and feel the world start to shake.

— and lets my spi-rit take flight, is in the mu-sic to-night! Ref.: Just — The big-ger chance that you take is more good mu-sic you make.

mp sing it! Ooh just sing it! ① Sing out loud what you're a-bout.
