Guided Reading: Chapter 24

FDR's Four Freedoms (State of the Union Address)

think happy

Let's talk about grades:

You can still improve your Spring Semester Grade!

You have the option of completing up to 4 extra-credit assignments and/or completing 6 make-up assignments.

Extra-Credit Assignments must be submitted by Thursday, 5/14/20 (the day before your exam).

Make-Up Assignments must be submitted by Tuesday, May 26th.

How & When Do I Submit These Assignments?

◦ How?

- You may email a word doc or image of the assignment to jeff.allen@fresnounified.org

◦ When?

- Extra-Credit may be submitted anytime on or before Thursday, 5/14/20.
- Make-up assignments may be submitted anytime on or before Tuesday, May 26th .

AP Testing From Home (The Basics)

◦ When?

- Friday, May 15th at 11:00am

◦ How?

- You may use any digital device
- In late April, College Board will provide AP students and educators with information on how to access the testing system on test day, and video demonstrations so that students can familiarize themselves with the system.

NOTE: This information will be sent to the email you used to create your AP account (this is the same email you used to “join” your AP class sections last fall).

Don't get too excited about open book/open note.

AP Exam Security

Like many college-level exams, this year's AP Exams will be open book/open note. However, students may not consult with any other individuals during the testing period (with the exception of students working on the AP Computer Science Principles Create performance task). We will take the necessary steps to protect the integrity of each exam administration, as we do every year.

We are confident the vast majority of AP students will follow the rules for taking the exams. For the small number of students who may try to gain an unfair advantage, we have a comprehensive and strict set of protocols in place to prevent and detect cheating. We are keeping some of these protocols confidential to maximize their effectiveness. Others are listed here.

Question name	Modified Document-Based Question (DBQ)
Question description	This question presents students with 5 historical sources, 1 of which will be a non-text-based source. This question assesses students' ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Respond to the prompt with a historically defensible thesis or claim that establishes a line of reasoning.• Describe a broader historical context relevant to the prompt.• Support an argument in response to the prompt using at least 4 documents.• Use at least 2 additional pieces of specific historical evidence (beyond that found in the documents) relevant to an argument about the prompt.• For at least 2 documents, explain how or why the document's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience is relevant to an argument.• Use evidence to corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument that addresses the prompt.

What could the DBQ Cover?

High Lights:

- 5 Documents
- Can come from Units 3-7
- Revised 10pt Rubric

Corresponding free-response question (FRQ) type in the course and exam description binder	Modified Document-Based Question (DBQ). The prompt for the 2020 modified DBQ may be derived from any of Units 3–7, and will include 5 documents (instead of 7). The rubric will be lightly modified to match the reduced number of documents, awarding 1 point for using 2 documents and an additional point for using 4 documents. An additional point will be awarded for effectively incorporating a second piece of outside knowledge into the argument. Students can earn up to 2 points for sourcing (1 point for each document).
Units eligible for 2020 exam	Units 3-7 (Students may choose to, but do not need to, provide content knowledge from units 1 and/or 2 for context)
Units not included in 2020 exam	Units 1-2 (although students may choose to provide content knowledge from units 1 and/or 2 for context), 8–9

What are periods 3-7?

No Change to these scoring criteria in 2020

Reporting Category	Scoring Criteria	Decision Rules
A. THESIS/CLAIM (0–1 pt)	1 pt. Responds to the prompt with a historically defensible thesis/claim that establishes a line of reasoning.	To earn this point, the thesis must make a claim that responds to the prompt rather than restating or rephrasing the prompt. The thesis must consist of one or more sentences located in one place, either in the introduction or the conclusion.
B. CONTEXTUALIZATION (0–1 pt)	1 pt. Describes a broader historical context relevant to the prompt.	To earn this point, the response must relate the topic of the prompt to broader historical events, developments, or processes that occur before, during, or continue after the time frame of the question. This point is not awarded for merely a phrase or reference.

Change for 2020 only

C. EVIDENCE (0–5 pts)

For 2020 only, this intermediate point will be awarded for students who can support an argument with fewer documents than in a typical exam year.

Evidence from the Documents

1 pt.

Uses the content of at least two documents to address the topic of the prompt.

AND 1 pt.

Supports an argument in response to the prompt using two documents.

To earn one point, the response must accurately describe—rather than simply quote—the content from at least two of the documents.

To earn two points, the response must accurately describe—rather than simply quote—the content from at least two documents. In addition, the response must use the content of the documents to support an argument in response to the prompt.

AND 1 pt.

Supports an argument in response to the prompt using at least four documents

To earn three points, the response must accurately describe—rather than simply quote—the content from at least four documents. In addition, the response must use the content of the documents to support an argument in response to the prompt.

Evidence Beyond the Documents

1 pt.

Uses at least one additional piece of the specific historical evidence (beyond that found in the documents) relevant to an argument about the prompt.

To earn this point, the response must describe the evidence and must use more than a phrase or reference. This additional piece of evidence must be different from the evidence used to earn the point for contextualization.

AND 1 pt.

Describes a second piece of specific historical evidence (beyond that found in the documents) relevant to an argument about the prompt.

For 2020 only, this point will be awarded for students who use a second piece of outside evidence in their response.

Reporting Category	Scoring Criteria	Decision Rules
--------------------	------------------	----------------

D. ANALYSIS AND REASONING (0–3 pts)

1 pt.
For one document, explains how or why the document’s point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience is relevant to an argument.

To earn this point, the response must explain how or why (rather than simply identifying) the document’s point of view, purpose, historical situation, or audience is relevant to an argument about the prompt for each of the documents sourced.

AND 1 pt.
For a second document, explains how or why the document’s point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience is relevant to an argument.

Change for 2020 only

For 2020 only, one point will be awarded for students who provide sourcing for ONE document relevant to an argument (rather than for three of seven documents as is required in a typical exam year), and a second point will be awarded for providing sourcing for a second document.

1 pt.

Demonstrates a complex understanding of the historical development that is the focus of the prompt, using evidence to corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument that addresses the question.

A response may demonstrate a complex understanding in a variety of ways, such as:

- Explaining nuance of an issue by analyzing multiple variables
- Explaining both similarity and difference, or explaining both continuity and change, or explaining multiple causes, or explaining both cause and effect
- Explaining relevant and insightful connections within and across periods
- Confirming the validity of an argument by corroborating multiple perspectives across themes
- Qualifying or modifying an argument by considering diverse or alternative views or evidence

This understanding must be part of the argument, not merely a phrase or reference.

Now let's look at the simplified version
