

Chinasom prepared lesson plans, worksheets and assessments in a timely manner in order to discuss appropriateness and then edited if another strategy was found. She engaged in professional discussions to reflect upon her progress and made adaptations where necessary.

Chinasom worked with members of staff in a professional and respectful manner. She worked hard on her responsibilities and was willing to try new ideas and strategies to help her teaching development.

Professional Engagement

Chinasom has made every effort to engage with a variety of teaching staff to observe different methodologies from a wide range of learning areas.
