Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Non-requirement of a TV License for my premises

I am writing to inform you that as from the date of this letter, I no longer require to purchase a TV License in respect of the above mentioned address.

Please amend your records accordingly and also be advised that as from the date of this letter, I am as per my rights withdrawing the “Implied Rights of Access” to anybody representing or employed by your company in respect of TV Licensing. It is highly recommended that you avoid attending/visiting my property, failure to adhere to this order will result in the prosecution of the said person under the UK laws of trespass.

Yours faithfully
