

MOMMYS COOKBOOK AQUA BLUE HEARTS EDITION PDF, EPUB, EBOOK

Pickled Pepper Press | 102 pages | 27 Dec 2018 | Independently Published | 9781792782169 | English | none

Gifts For Mum | Present Ideas For Mothers | The Present Finder

This costume is hassle-free and can be effortlessly made with only a few materials. The best part? No sewing! Get the tutorial at Lines Across. You can make this cozy costume entirely from fleece and batting. Just imagine how cute your child will be waddling around in this suit! You won't have to tumble down the rabbit hole to make this beautiful kid's costume.

Even if you've got just basic skills with a needle and thread it will only take a couple of hours to put together. Get the tutorial at Artsy-Fartsy Mama. Make this costume for your little one, and we're pretty sure he or she will turn into the cutest cloud you've ever seen. Don't forget rain boots and an umbrella to complete the look. Get the tutorial at Andrea's Notebook. It's surprisingly simple to make this unique costume with some discarded boxes and a few cute accessories, like a bandana and engineer's cap.

Get the tutorial at The Ophoffs. Download blogger Rachel Faucett's printable mask template, grab your sewing machine, and start crafting this classic costume based on the beloved book. Get the tutorial at Handmade Charlotte. Ashley Ann, a creative photographer, blogger, and mom, suited up her entire family—that's four children plus her husband and herself! They are all precious, but this little Yoda costume will steal your heart in a way only a Jedi Grand Master can. Get the tutorial at Under the Sycamore. Your little chickadee will be the head of the flock in this no-sew costume made of super-soft felt. What child doesn't fantasize about flying through the air? These graphic felt capes have a delightfully handmade look.

We love that they can be used after Halloween for regular play time. Get the tutorial at Inch Mark. With the pattern for a smart smock, blogger Merilee sewed her little boys a pair of knight costumes with wonderful—and adorable—hand-drawn emblems worthy of King Arthur's court. With easy additions like boots and the all-important sword and shield for an old-fashioned and friendly!

Get the tutorial at Mer Mag. This costume adorable and inexpensive. These bat wings are simple to make using black felt and boning. The mask? It's as easy as printing out and pasting to a pair of sunglasses. Get the tutorial at Alpha Mom. You'll be proud as a peacock having made this costume from blogger Christy Cook. The supply list is surprisingly simple: a turquoise onesie and orange leggings are dressed up with peacock feathers, fluffy turquoise feathers, and sequined elastic. Get the tutorial at Creatively Christy. For a baby who may not be ready for a full-fledged Halloween costume just yet, craft this adorable acorn hat, which will also keep your little one warm during the cool October night. Get the tutorial at My Own Road. For this costume, you'll need an oversize sweater, bulky pants, high boots, red and white felt, big buttons, and an old belt.

If you're looking for a costume that's a purr-fect breeze to make, you're in luck! With a little help from bendy wire, a hot glue gun, felt, and thread, you can transform a black feather boa into a cat tail and ears for your furry feline. Get the tutorial at DIY Divas. Five-inch mini balloons inflated to slightly different sizes are the secret to this fresh costume. Get the tutorial at Wild Ink Press. For the child with a sense of humor, gear up for plenty of laughs with this clever 3D spin on a classic stick figure drawing. Get the tutorial at All for the Boys. Let your kids roar with this no-sew, colorful costume made from a hoodie and colorful pieces of triangle felt. Get the tutorial at Ginger Snap Crafts. Every child will love this vibrant and colorful costume. We love the sunshine headband and poofy cloud details! Get the tutorial at The Chirping Moms.

If you have a little girl and a little boy, what could be cuter than dressing them up as a mini-Mary and a mini-Burt from Mary Poppins? Get the tutorial at Hey Ambular. Country Life. Design Ideas. Home Maintenance. Country Living Shop. Shopping Guides. United States. Type keywords to search. Today's Top Stories. Makeover Takeover: Colonial Comeback. Brian Woodcock. Advertisement - Continue Reading Below. View this post on Instagram. Made for Mums. Make your youngster's wild west dreams come true with this one-of-a-kind costume. Emily Steffen. We love this costume idea for a pair of siblings! A Pumpkin and a Princess. After making this magnificent costume, you'll be ready to take a bow. Colorful helium balloons help this cheery number hit new heights. With glossy spray paint and round boxes, construct a building block that can't be beat. Pepper Design. Delia Creates. Sugar Bee Crafts. Halloween Costume. Repeat Crafter Me. Peek-a-Boo Pages. Design Dazzle.

Crafting Chicks. Whether best friends or siblings, kids can go as cowboys and cowgirls together. The Merry Thought. See Vanessa Craft. Crafts by Amanda. This costume uses mostly duct tape for a last-minute idea that is right on target. Dukes and Duchesses. Moms who knit will have a ball get it?! Liz Stanley. Love the Day. Make It and Love It. This awesome costume looks almost good enough to eat. A Beautiful Mess. The red yarn "hair" is what makes this costume such a winner, and it's a snap to create!

Desert Chica. Sewing Rabbit. Make Life Lovely. This adorable costume will remind your adventurer to never grow up! The Effortless Chic. Spot of Tea Designs. She'll look so cute you'll want to eat her up! The Small Details. Homemade Toast. Sarah Hearts. Stitched by Crystal. Your little hero will surely save the day in this firefighter Halloween costume. Courtesy of Smarties. Make your favorite kitchen helper's dreams come true with this adorable costume. Bombshell Bling. The ghost costume is a classic for a reason! Try this no-sew version this year.

Does it get any cuter than a baby panda? Adventure in a Box. Round up two more neighborhood kids and whip up three of these easy costumes! Ironically, you won't have to sew a thing when you create this needle and thread costume. Delineate Your Dwelling. Your little adventurers will be all ready to dive into their stash of Halloween candy. Me Sew Crazy. We hope there's lots of candy under the sea! Sincerely Jean. No need for magic pixie dust—you can make this costume in just a few easy steps. STL Motherhood. Make It Yours with Melissa. Fun at Home with Kids. Take your kiddo's Halloween costume to infinity and beyond this year.

Giggles Galore. The Benson Street. This beautiful fairy costume is magically easy to make. Smashed Peas and Carrots. Lines Across. Artsy-Fartsy Mama. Courtesy of Andrea's Notebook. Fox Halloween Costume. Under the Sycamore. A Night Owl. This no-sew costume will make your little one roar with Halloween excitement! Ellen Luckett Baker. Creatively Christy. My own Road. Courtesy of Wild Ink Press. Anyone looking to create dishes for their family needs Food Network cookware. From pots and pans to Dutch ovens, skillets, and more, Food Network makes plenty of cookware that helps you make meals in no time. With options like ceramic, hard-anodized, cast iron, and more, Food Network cookware gets the job done time and time again. When the time comes to make some tasty baked goods, reach for Food Network bakeware! Measuring cups, scales, thermometers, knives And when the food is set to be served, set the table with Food Network dinnerware, serveware, and flatware.

If you own a home bar, stock up with Food Network drinkware, too. From beer mugs to wine glasses, Food Network drinkware offers all the proper vessels in which to serve your guests delicious concoctions! And last but not least, enhance the look of your kitchen and dining room with Food Network linens. Tablecloths set the foundation for any meal served at the dining room table. Various kitchen towels not only clean messes, but add charm and ambiance to your meal prep space. And other items like chair pads complete the look of your dining room and keep you family comfortable during any meal. Food Network products include many of the items you need to get the most out of your kitchen. Small kitchen appliances, including coffee makers, air fryers, and pressure cookers, cut down on food prep and cook times, giving you more time to spend with your family.

Food storage options securely hold ingredients and leftovers and keep them fresh. When it comes to kitchen and dining, Food Network is a name you can trust. With their wide selection of products aimed at making time spent in the kitchen efficient, easy, and even fun, Food Network items are sure to encourage you to fire up the oven and get cooking! We're sorry, JavaScript is required to shop Kohls. All Products Show 48 items 72 items 96 items items 48 items undefined. Other Kitchen Essentials for Your Home Food Network products include many of the items you need to get the most out of your kitchen. Skip to main content Food Network Kitchen. Food Network Dining.

Mom's Cookbook Aqua Blue Hearts Edition by Pickled Pepper Press (English) Paperb | eBay

Best of all it cooks in just 2 minutes. Reviewers recommend adding cooked chorizo, beans, or scrambled eggs to bulk up the dish. Hot and gooey, this dip combines bacon, cream cheese, mayonnaise, Swiss cheese, and green onions with a crunchy crushed cracker topping. You can cook the bacon in the microwave too if you prefer. Reviewers suggest serving it with pita chips, melba toast, or sliced sourdough bread. Sometimes a bowl of creamy soup is the most soothing thing to eat. This recipe makes a large batch of broccoli cheese soup, so you may need to halve it for smaller microwaves.

Steam frozen broccoli in the microwave for it to be an entirely microwave-made meal. It takes just minutes of cooking and another minutes of rest time to create this classic meatloaf with a tomato sauce topping. Make it for dinner one night, then use the leftovers for meatloaf sandwiches the next day. When the munchies strike, you can make your own potato chips in a hurry. Use a mandolin or the slicer on a box grater to make paper-thin slices before magically turning them into chips. You'll need to cook the macaroni before making this easy recipe that tastes like stovetop macaroni and cheese, but you can buy pre-cooked macaroni in many well-stocked grocery stores. It's made with processed cheese and some onions for a smooth and flavorful sauce. Allowing the pasta to rest after cooking gives the sauce time to thicken as it cools slightly.

A classic old fashioned dessert made from leftover bread, this version uses raisin bread and a little sprinkle of cinnamon. Be sure to beat the eggs thoroughly and add them quickly to the milk to avoid them scrambling. Enjoy it hot or cold the next day. You don't have to be Italian to love this dish of breaded chicken breast cutlets with plenty of tomato sauce and gooey mozzarella. Recipe creator Cindy Henderson Foster suggests serving it with your favorite pasta shape. A fall favorite, this soup combines onions and butternut squash with vegetable broth, cream, and warm spices. Whether you serve this on its own or with sandwiches, it's sure to warm both bellies and hearts. This recipe is almost as quick and easy as instant pudding, but made from scratch with wholesome ingredients so it's much tastier. Reviewer Dessert Freak says you can use rice milk, soy milk, or coconut milk instead of dairy milk and it still turns out great. If you're looking for something to do with overripe bananas other than banana bread, this is it.

Flax seeds and walnuts add hearty crunch to this warming breakfast dish sweetened with just a touch of honey. Creamy and cheesy, this casserole is the epitome of comforting. Tater tots are tossed with chopped ham, green beans, and a cream of chicken-based sauce and microwaved until bubbly. Skip the store-bought stuff and make wow-worthy peanut butter cups at home with the microwave. You just need a few minutes for the cooking, then the patience for them to chill out in the fridge for a while. Wild rice and broccoli are tossed in a creamy cheese sauce to make this casserole that no one will believe came from the microwave. Reviewer Carolyn Perrine says, "Everyone in my family absolutely loves this recipe! I get rave reviews every time I make it and it's always the first thing to go.

No stovetop required to make these delightfully cheesy quesadillas. Serve with a scoop of pico de gallo or guacamole on the side for dipping. By Amy Sherman Updated July 07, Pin Share. Microwave Macaroni and Cheese. Start Slideshow. Close up of Microwave Scalloped Potatoes. Assess Your Personality. The IQ Challenge. Yoga Cat Plant Markers. How to Speak Dog. Bletchley Park Brain Teasers Book. Short Walks in Beautiful Places Book. A Word A Day Book. The Shipping Forecast Puzzle Book. Personalised Jelly Baby Sweet Tree. Personalised Malteser Head with Hat and Moustache.

Aqua, pink and mustard stripe cotton scarf with tassels. Aqua blue and red stripe scarf with tassels. Recycled yarn bright stripe scarf. Graphic print border scarf - navy. Graphic print border scarf - red. Grey and multi check scarf with little reversible jacquard hearts. Recycled turquoise scarf with bumblebee print. Recycled blue and pink mix oval print scarf. Silver plated triple crystal and chain earrings. Silver plated fine chain and multi crystal necklace. Gold plated disc and smoky crystal layered necklace. Rose gold plated fine chain and crystal star bracelet. Tree of Life Jacquard Scarf - Teal. Grey Reversible Jacquard Star Scarf. Reversible navy and pastel jacquard heart scarf. Tree of Life Jacquard Scarf - Pink.

Become a Knight or Dame. My Baking Journal. Comedy Night for 2. It's Wine O'Clock Set. Prosecco Fizz Time Clock Set. Set of 3 Journals. Hot Chocolate Bombs. Digging Dog Garden Ornament. Personalised Framed Ordnance Survey Map. Become a Lord or Lady! Personalised My House Area History. Single Wonky Wine Glass. Six Wonky Wine Glasses 6 Glasses. Gardening Stool with Tool Bag. Pair of Wonky Wine Glasses. Belgian Chocolate Pizza Slice. Personalised Haribo Sweet Tree. Scratch Map Travel Edition. Golf Ball Finder Glasses. Tablet Flexi Holder. Stay Cool Ice Towel. Personalised Map Tea Towel. Bedside Pocket. The Wisdom of Prince Philip Book. Personalised Brass Traveller's Compass. Personalised Chocolate Button Sweet Tree. Giant Prosecco Glass. Personalised Liquorice Allsorts Sweet Tree. Twickenham Stadium Tour. Personalised Lindor Chocolate Sweet Tree. Personalised Ferrero Rocher Sweet Tree. Fetch my Keys Key Finder. Mojitos Ladies Oddsocks. Escape Room Game. Adopt a Sloth. Four Chocolate Lipsticks.

Visit to Kew Gardens with Cream Tea for 2. Giant Outdoor Thermometer - Zinc. Canadian Weather Stick. Alcohol Tester for iPhone and Android. Llama Eye Mask. Sloth Eye Mask. Unicorn Eye Mask. Personalised Love Definition Map. Vintage Playing Cards Love Frame. Born To Be Mild Mug. Real Unicorns Have Curves Mug. Adopt An Elephant.

The Best Backpacks for Kids: Edition - Lovely Lucky Life

The Wisdom of Prince Philip Book. Personalised Brass Traveller's Compass. Personalised Chocolate Button Sweet Tree. Giant Prosecco Glass. Personalised Liquorice Allsorts Sweet Tree. Twickenham Stadium Tour. Personalised Lindor Chocolate Sweet Tree. Personalised Ferrero Rocher Sweet Tree. Fetch my Keys Key Finder. Mojitos Ladies Oddsocks. Escape Room Game. Adopt a Sloth. Four Chocolate Lipsticks. Visit to Kew Gardens with Cream Tea for 2. Giant Outdoor Thermometer - Zinc. Canadian Weather Stick. Alcohol Tester for iPhone and Android. Llama Eye Mask. Sloth Eye Mask. Unicorn Eye Mask. Personalised Love Definition Map. Vintage Playing Cards Love Frame. Born To Be Mild Mug. Real Unicorns Have Curves Mug. Adopt An Elephant. Adopt a Llama. Adopt a Big Cat. Personalised Milk Chocolate Smash Cup. How To Make Space Book. Aurora Portable Speaker. Takeaway Dice. Spark Adventure 50 Ways to Explore and Discover. Brew Planet Colour Changing Mug.

Tall Tales Journal. Icepop Socks. Yoga Mats. Gargle Game. Pokito Pop Up Cup. My Family Cookbook. Llama Planter. My Gardening Handbook. Daily Cranium Brain Puzzles. Churchill's Cigar and Whisky Bottle Puzzle. Houdini's Escapology Puzzle. Eco Razor Sharpener. Deodorising Chefs Soap. Complete Pub Quiz Game. Gracula Garlic Crusher. Leaf Serving Spoon. Estimated delivery business days. Format Paperback. Condition Brand New. Description Create your own cookbook. A blank lined journal to write your favorite recipes. Grand Eagle Retail is the ideal place for all your shopping needs! Whether you serve this on its own or with sandwiches, it's sure to warm both bellies and hearts.

This recipe is almost as quick and easy as instant pudding, but made from scratch with wholesome ingredients so it's much tastier. Reviewer Dessert Freak says you can use rice milk, soy milk, or coconut milk instead of dairy milk and it still turns out great. If you're looking for something to do with overripe bananas other than banana bread, this is it. Flax seeds and walnuts add hearty crunch to this warming breakfast dish sweetened with just a touch of honey. Creamy and cheesy, this casserole is the epitome of comforting. Tater tots are tossed with chopped ham, green beans, and a cream of chicken-based sauce and microwaved until bubbly. Skip the store-bought stuff and make wow-worthy peanut butter cups at home with the microwave.

You just need a few minutes for the cooking, then the patience for them to chill out in the fridge for a while. Wild rice and broccoli are tossed in a creamy cheese sauce to make this casserole that no one will believe came from the microwave. Reviewer Carolyn Perrine says, "Everyone in my family absolutely loves this recipe! I get rave reviews every time I make it and it's always the first thing to go. No stovetop required to make these delightfully cheesy quesadillas. Serve with a scoop of pico de gallo or guacamole on the side for dipping. By Amy Sherman Updated July 07, Pin Share. Microwave Macaroni and Cheese. Start Slideshow. Close up of Microwave Scalloped Potatoes. View Recipe this link opens in a new tab. Microwave goulash on a white plate. Microwave Chocolate Mug Cake. Basic Microwave Risotto. Easy Microwave Chilaquiles on a white plate. World's Best Bacon Cheese Dip. Broccoli Cheese Soup in two bowls and a pot.

Mom's Cushion (New Horizons) - Animal Crossing Wiki - Nookipedia

Quiet, please! This smartly dressed librarian costume is one of our favorite ideas for kids. A library card canvas tote is an on-theme candy carryall, while a Peter Pan collar blouse, cardigan sweater, and plaid skirt which you likely already have in your closet complete the look. Don't forget to add a pair of glasses. You only need a few supplies for your little one's flower costume to be in full bloom! Start with a base of a green leotard and tights. With green felt and dark green embroidery thread, construct leaf sleeves.

Then use pink felt or her favorite color to make a petal face piece. Replace the plastic pot with a green tutu to create a flower ballerina. Get the tutorial at Pepper Design. The force will be with your child when he wears this DIY Star Wars costume that's surprisingly easy to make. It even ingeniously uses a pool noodle for a lightsaber! Get the tutorial at Delia Creates. Let the wild rumpus start with this no-sew costume of Max, the main character from the beloved children's book, Where the Wild Things Are.

Get the tutorial at A Night Owl. Best friends or sisters of all ages can pull off this super-easy Halloween costume that starts with oversized, brightly colored T-shirts. Get the tutorial at Sugar Bee Crafts. If you're an avid crocheter or want to become one, this DIY Waldo hat is easy to stitch up. Pair with a red-and-white striped shirt and round black glasses for the complete look.

Get the tutorial at Repeat Crafter Me. We'd pay well over 25 cents to see a little cutie rocking this candy-inspired getup. Major props if you can get your baby to leave the pom-pom hat on long enough for a photo. Get the tutorial at Peek-a-Boo Pages. Your sports fanatic will score the most original Halloween costume in the neighborhood this year. Plus, made with supplies from the Dollar Store, it'll make you feel like the ultimate winner, too. Get the tutorial at Design Dazzle. Get the tutorial at Crafting Chicks. Here's a costume that just makes "cents" if you're looking for a clever, surprisingly quick Halloween get-up. Get the tutorial at The Merry Thought. Even parents can get in on the fun for a full Care Bear family—cloud wagon included. Get the tutorial at See Vanessa Craft. Get the tutorial at Crafts by Amanda. Get the tutorial at Dukes and Duchesses. Chances are you won't even need to make a trip to the store to turn your little nugget into the black sheep of the family.

Get the tutorial at Say Yes. Halloween is all about indulging in sweets, so why not carry over the theme to your kids' costumes? Get the tutorial at Love the Day. Get the tutorial at Make It and Love It. Get the tutorial at A Beautiful Mess. Since a little cold never bothered your children anyway, let it snow in spirit, of course and channel this beloved Frozen snowman. Get the tutorial at Desert Chica. Pressed for time before the Halloween party? Whip up this last-minute Lady Liberty replica, torch and all, in just 20 minutes. Expect your patriotic daughter to proudly perfect her power stance all day long. Get the tutorial at Sewing Rabbit. Whoooooo can make this seriously sweet Harry Potter Hegwig baby costume?

Because it's no sew, the answer is everyone, that's who! Get the tutorial at Make Life Lovely. Watch out for this fruit-chomping blast from the past, which will definitely serve up some video game nostalgia from the adult crowd. Get the tutorial at The Effortless Chic. You'll get a kick out of turning your little girl into a pint-size version of the WWII icon—especially since it only takes a bit chambray and a polka dot head scarf. Get the tutorial at Spot of Tea Designs. You won't be busy as a bee DIYing these adorbs antennae—they're super-simple to make.

A yellow and black sweater can complete the costume. This precious little thing girl dressed as a pretty-in-pink flamingo for Purim, but the totally on-trend costume works just as well for Halloween, too. Get the tutorial at The Small Details. Get the tutorial at Love and Lion. It may be a tale as old as time, but even your youngest will love dressing up in a DIY Disney Halloween costumes. Get the tutorial at Homemade Toast. Your little one doesn't need much more than these homemade wings and a white dress to transform into the angel she really is this Halloween. This adorable costume will get your little one in the mooood to trick-or-treat. You could be the moon to your kiddo's stars with this cool celestial costume, or you can let her shine on her own by making this an ensemble for one.

Get the tutorial at Sarah Hearts. Get the tutorial at Stitched by Crystal. What better role model is there for your little monkey to look up to than this animal rights activist? Get the tutorial at Smarties. Get the tutorial at Bombshell Bling. A classic costume is always a good idea. She'll love the flashy costume jewelry and tiara. A signature blue Tiffany's bag makes for a perfect candy carryall. Get the tutorial at C. Your little artist can help you craft this easy-to-make costume. Crafty older kids may even be able to tackle it all by themselves! Get the tutorial at Adventure in a Box. Get the tutorial at Delineate Your Dwelling. Get the tutorial at Me Sew Crazy. This foodie costume is DIY brilliance. All you need is felt and fabric glue to make pizza crust and toppings. Get the tutorial at U Create.

Get the tutorial at Sincerely Jean. If your trick-or-treater is crazy about Minecraft, now they can be one of their favorite characters! Get the tutorial at STL Motherhood. This may be one of the sweetest costumes we've seen yet! Customize cupcake wrapper and sprinkles colors to her favorites. Get the tutorial at Make It Yours with Melissa. Get the tutorial at Fun at Home with Kids. This fun, sudsy costume takes almost no time to make. You'll need balloons, a white shirt and pants, a duck bath toy, and any bath accessories. Get the tutorial at Giggles Galore. You're eggsactly right—this costume is as quick to make as it is dear. We'll take two, sunny side up! Get the tutorial at The Benson Street. Get the tutorial at Being Brook. Hard-Anodized Skillet Set.

Nonstick Covered Deep Skillet. Enameled Cast-Iron Dutch Oven. Melamine Dinner Plate Set. Drinkware Set. Melamine Salad Plate Set. Bay Drinkware Set. BBQ Tool Set. Smoke Glassware Set. Get ready to prepare delicious and nutritious meals and treats at home with the many kitchen tools at your disposal, all supplied by the Food Network brand of products! Food Network provides a wide variety of products that are useful around the kitchen, as well as items that really enhance the look and feel of your home. Anyone looking to create dishes for their family needs Food Network cookware.

From pots and pans to Dutch ovens, skillets, and more, Food Network makes plenty of cookware that helps you make meals in no time. With options like ceramic, hard-anodized, cast iron, and more, Food Network cookware gets the job done time and time again. When the time comes to make some tasty baked goods, reach for Food Network bakeware! You won't be busy as a bee DIYing these adorbs antennae—they're super-simple to make. A yellow and black sweater can complete the costume. This precious little thing girl dressed as a pretty-in-pink flamingo for Purim, but the totally on-trend costume works just as well for Halloween, too. Get the tutorial at The Small Details. Get the tutorial at Love and Lion. It may be a tale as old as time, but even your youngest will love dressing up in a DIY Disney Halloween costumes. Get the tutorial at Homemade Toast. Your little one doesn't need much more than these homemade wings and a white dress to transform into the angel she really is this Halloween.

This adorable costume will get your little one in the mooood to trick-or-treat. You could be the moon to your kiddo's stars with this cool celestial costume, or you can let her shine on her own by making this an ensemble for one. Get the tutorial at Sarah Hearts. Get the tutorial at Stitched by Crystal. What better role model is there for your little monkey to look up to than this animal rights activist? Get the tutorial at Smarties. Get the tutorial at Bombshell Bling. A classic costume is always a good idea. She'll love the flashy costume jewelry and tiara. A signature blue Tiffany's bag makes for a perfect candy carryall. Get the tutorial at C. Your little artist can help you craft this easy-to-make costume. Crafty older kids may even be able to tackle it all by themselves! Get the tutorial at Adventure in a Box. Get the tutorial at Delineate Your Dwelling. Get the tutorial at Me Sew Crazy. This foodie costume is DIY brilliance.

All you need is felt and fabric glue to make pizza crust and toppings. Get the tutorial at U Create. Get the tutorial at Sincerely Jean. If your trick-or-treater is crazy about Minecraft, now they can be one of their favorite characters! Get the tutorial at STL Motherhood. This may be one of the sweetest costumes we've seen yet! Customize cupcake wrapper and sprinkles colors to her favorites. Get the tutorial at Make It Yours with Melissa. Get the tutorial at Fun at Home with Kids. This fun, sudsy costume takes almost no time to make. You'll need balloons, a white shirt and pants, a duck bath toy, and any bath accessories. Get the tutorial at Giggles Galore. You're eggsactly right—this costume is as quick to make as it is dear. We'll take two, sunny side up! Get the tutorial at The Benson Street.

Get the tutorial at Being Brook. It only takes a couple hours to sew these fabulous Mario and Luigi costumes, and then they can be off to save Princess Peach! Get the tutorial at Smashed Peas and Carrots. This costume is hassle-free and can be effortlessly made with only a few materials. The best part? No sewing! Get the tutorial at Lines Across. You can make this cozy costume entirely from fleece and batting. Just imagine how cute your child will be waddling around in this suit! You won't have to tumble down the rabbit hole to make this beautiful kid's costume. Even if you've got just basic skills with a needle and thread it will only take a couple of hours to put together. Get the tutorial at Artsy-Fartsy Mama.

Make this costume for your little one, and we're pretty sure he or she will turn into the cutest cloud you've ever seen. Don't forget rain boots and an umbrella to complete the look. Get the tutorial at Andrea's Notebook. It's surprisingly simple to make this unique costume with some discarded boxes and a few cute accessories, like a bandana and engineer's cap. Get the tutorial at The Ophoffs. Download blogger Rachel Faucett's printable mask template, grab your sewing machine, and start crafting this classic costume based on the beloved book. Get the tutorial at Handmade Charlotte. Ashley Ann, a creative photographer, blogger, and mom, suited up her entire family—that's four children plus her husband and herself!

They are all precious, but this little Yoda costume will steal your heart in a way only a Jedi Grand Master can. Get the tutorial at Under the Sycamore. Your little chickadee will be the head of the flock in this no-sew costume made of super-soft felt. What child doesn't fantasize about flying through the air? These graphic felt capes have a delightfully handmade look.

We love that they can be used after Halloween for regular play time. Get the tutorial at Inch Mark. With the pattern for a smart smock, blogger Merilee sewed her little boys a pair of knight costumes with wonderful—and adorable—hand-drawn emblems worthy of King Arthur's court. With easy additions like boots and the all-important sword and shield for an old-fashioned and friendly! Get the tutorial at Mer Mag. This costume is adorable and inexpensive. These bat wings are simple to make using black felt and boning. The mask? It's as easy as printing out and pasting to a pair of sunglasses. Get the tutorial at Alpha Mom. You'll be proud as a peacock having made this costume from blogger Christy Cook. The supply list is surprisingly simple: a turquoise onesie and orange leggings are dressed up with peacock feathers, fluffy turquoise feathers, and sequined elastic.

Get the tutorial at Creatively Christy. For a baby who may not be ready for a full-fledged Halloween costume just yet, craft this adorable acorn hat, which will also keep your little one warm during the cool October night. Get the tutorial at My Own Road. For this costume, you'll need an oversized sweater, bulky pants, high boots, red and white felt, big buttons, and an old belt. If you're looking for a costume that's a purr-fect breeze to make, you're in luck! With a little help from bendy wire, a hot glue gun, felt, and thread, you can transform a black feather boa into a cat tail and ears for your furry feline.

Get the tutorial at DIY Divas. Five-inch mini balloons inflated to slightly different sizes are the secret to this fresh costume. Get the tutorial at Wild Ink Press. For the child with a sense of humor, gear up for plenty of laughs with this clever 3D spin on a classic stick figure drawing. Get the tutorial at All for the Boys. Let your kids roar with this no-sew, colorful costume made from a hoodie and colorful pieces of triangle felt. Get the tutorial at Ginger Snap Crafts. Every child will love this vibrant and colorful costume. We love the sunshine headband and poofy cloud details! Get the tutorial at The Chirping Moms.

London Snap