

POPULAR PLACES CLOSE TO GLYFA BEACH HOTEL

GLYFA
BEACH
HOTEL

BEACHES

KASTRO KILLINI, GOLDEN COAST 13KM

10 km of sandy beach with many bars, camping sites and taverns along the coastline.

Near the Killini`s baths beach there are the famous thermal springs of 26°C which has beneficial properties.

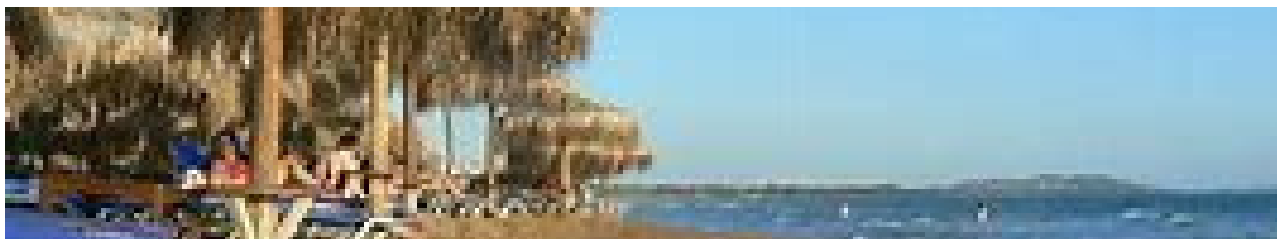

ARKOUDI BEACH (BEAR BEACH)

5 KM

Arkoudi is a beach of 120 meters with soft sand, small waves and a soft entrance to the sea.

It offers diving and hiking (between olive trees) experiences.

KOUROUTA BEACH

25KM

It is situated in a distance of 3km from the second biggest city of the Peloponnese, Amaliada.

CITIES

AMALIADA 25KM

The cultural capital of the Prefecture of Ilia, in fact the most touristic places are

1. Ancient Ilida

Host city of the ancient Olympic Games

2. Frangavilla Monastery

A mid-Byzantine building, it is one of the most important temples of Ilia

3. Nikos Belogiannis Museum

4. Folklore Museum of Amaliada

OLYMPIA 70KM

Olympia is known for hosting the most influential ancient Greek sanctuaries, located in western Peloponnese. The archaeological site, Ancient Olympia, includes ruins from Bronze Age to the Byzantine eras.

You can also find the archeological Olympia museum one of the most important museums in Greece that presents the long history of the the sanctuary of Zeus, where the olimpic games began.

KATAKOLON (OLYMPIA) 45KM

seaside town, famous for the port where the ancient greek flocked every four year to celebrate the sacred olympic games.

Katakolon is situated 34km from Ancient Olympia.

ACHAIA 115KM

It is part of the region of Western Greece and it's situated in the northwestern part of the Peloponnese peninsula. The capital is Patras which is the third largest city in Greece.

Another important city is EGIRA, an ancient polis with many archeological sites.

CASTLE CHLEMOUTSI 9KM

Also known as Clermont, it's a medieval castle, located near the Principality's capital of Andravida

WATERFALLS 120KM/80KM

NEDA

The river is 32 km long and it begins near the village of Neda in northern Messenia. It flows to the west through a varied landscape of barren rock and forests. It forms neda' waterfalls near the village Platania

NEMUTA

Between Arcadia and Elis, near the mountain Erymanthos and the Foloi oak forest, you will find the Nemouta Waterfalls in the Erymanthos river. Full of Greek mythology and home of Centaurs and fairies.