Library Services

Welcome to the Northwell Health Electronic Medical Information Library (EMIL), accessible remotely and on campus. EMIL is the gateway to search databases, e-textbooks, journal articles, reference materials, and other information resources. For any technical difficulties or problems accessing the full text contact emil@northwell.edu. For problems or questions with accessing EMIL via mobile devices contact emilmobile@northwell.edu or click here for instructions.

The Northwell Libraries have initiated a new subscription to DynaMed Plus - a comprehensive clinical information point-of-care resource. This platform is a significant upgrade to our current DynaMed product.
