Recognition of “NPs in the News” D. Lubeck-Walsh	Dorit recognized Geeta Persaud for being honored with the “Patient Centered Care’ Award and Jenny Chacko for being selected to participate in the Northwell Health Nurse Heroes Choir which was streamed on Thanksgiving Day.	On November 5, Northwell Health recognized Nurse Practitioner Chandrowtie (Geeta) Persaud, DNP, with a Patient Centered Care award at the 2020 Hospital Medicine Academic Summit. The award is given to those individuals who are passionate about their work and driven to give the best patient care possible. Candidates must also serve as professional models of excellence to their colleagues. Northwell Nurse Heroes on Thanksgiving -the nurse choir which was a main feature of the concert. 48 nurses from across the health system delivered a powerful and emotional version of the songs ‘Stand by Me’ and ‘Lean on Me’. Three nurses from Phelps, Jenny Philip Chacko, Jacki Hirsch, and Alaina C. Smalley, were selected to participate in the choir.	Congratulations to Geeta and Jenny!
Review of Northwell updates D. Lubeck-Walsh	Jen Laffey unable to attend this meeting so Dorit provided updates	Northwell Mentor-Mentee graduation was today – congratulations to Lincy Joseph who was one of the mentees in Northwell’s ACP mentorship program. Discussed inviting Lincy to the next meeting (and also Cherry Fuentes, RN, who developed the mentorship program for clinical nurses). Dorit provided explanation and answered questions regarding TransAmerica and career framework.	Congratulations to Lincy! Judy/Dorit will invite Lincy and Cherry to our meeting in January 2021.
