Blessing Ezeako

Blessing Ezeako has established herself as one of the few female forex billionaires in Nigeria.

She began trading as a side hustle but was able to transform online forex trading into a full-time business over time.

According to local sources, Blessing chooses to trade with HFM, one of the few forex brokers in Nigeria that provides an ECN account. She began trading the forex market as a side business and it has grown into full-time employment for her.

Precious Madueke

Fueled by a passion for empowering Nigerian youth, she founded PreshForex Academy, a groundbreaking platform offering online and physical training to young individuals hungry for financial independence through foreign exchange trading.

Through PreshForex Academy, Preshbae is not just changing lives; she's sculpting futures.

Her mentorship and guidance are shaping a new generation of savvy traders, equipping them with the skills and knowledge needed to navigate the complexities of the forex market.

Nelisiwe Masango

Nelisiwe Masango's tale is amazing.

While still in college, her goals were to become a neurosurgeon, but she soon learned her true interest was economics and investing.

When it came time to complete her education, she enrolled in entrepreneurial management, followed by learning how to trade.

Masango has now become one of South Africa's most successful female forex traders.

Nelisiwe Masango founded three financial firms to increase financial stability and knowledge among South African women.

Nobuhle Catherine Anajemba (Boss lady)

Nobuhle Catherine Anajemba is now Africa's richest forex woman, having a net worth of around R100 million as of 2018.

Nobuhle Catherine Anajemba is trained and mentored in Forex, Binary Options, and cryptocurrencies through her online institutions.
